

House District Redistricting Plan

District boundaries were based on natural geographic features to group similar communities and neighborhoods into common districts. A conscience effort was made to keep districts from extending over too great a geographic area and losing the collectiveness of the unit.

Variations from the ideal population reflect anticipated population changes that Gallatin County can expect within the next 5-7 years.

Redistricting Plan created by the Gallatin County GIS Department.
November 15, 2011

