- State Special Revenue (SSR) fund – includes payments of public defender fees from clients, and any gifts, grants or donations received. These funds are to be used only for the operation of the public defender system.

- Active/Inactive Cases - Active cases are currently being worked on; inactive cases are those where the client has disappeared and a warrant has been issued for their arrest; or there has been a deferred sentence or deferred prosecution whereby the client can withdraw his guilty plea or have the charges dismissed upon the fulfillment of certain conditions.

- Misdemeanors: criminal cases that carry six months to a year in jail, fines, court costs, other conditions

- Felonies - serious criminal cases – must be heard in district court

- Lower courts, aka Courts of Limited Jurisdiction – includes city courts, justice court and municipal court; these courts handle misdemeanor cases.

- District Courts - Courts that handle felony cases and other matters. Unlike many lower courts, the judges must be attorneys.

- DN – district neglect: district stands for the court, district court; neglect stands for abuse and neglect cases. Also referred to as “dependent neglect” cases.
  - Abuse and neglect are those cases where the government has intervened in the parent-child relationship and either removed the children from the home or are working with the parents and keeping the children in the home. The case could result in the termination of the parental rights, i.e. the parents lose their children permanently.

- DC – district criminal: these are felony cases

- DI – district involuntary: involuntary commitment cases where the government is seeking to commit a client to the Montana State Hospital due to a mental disorder

- DJ – district juvenile: cases where children have been charged with criminal offenses and those cases are being heard in the youth court

- DG – district guardianship: cases where there has been a petition filed for someone to have a guardian appointed by the court to manage their life generally: where they will live, what they will do for health care, how they will spend their money

- Appeals - Where a client requests that a higher court review a decision of a lower court, e.g. one would appeal a case from a court of limited jurisdiction to the district court; one would appeal a district court case to the Montana Supreme Court.

- Conflict – when an attorney or office cannot represent a client due to a conflict of interest. Usually means the attorney or office currently represents another person who is intimately involved in that case.

- Contract attorneys - Private attorneys who contract with OPD to handle conflict cases and other cases as needed by the region. Payment is currently $62 per hour. The rate for capital cases is $120 per hour.

- Jurisdiction - the ability or authority of a court to hear a case, e.g. city courts do not have jurisdiction over felony cases.

- An “Initial” – when the criminal defendant first appears before the court.

- Capital case – a death penalty case.
