

HJ 35: HEALTH CARE FACILITY FEE

GENERAL FUND RANK: #24

REVENUE COLLECTION HISTORY

HEALTH CARE FACILITY FEE OVERVIEW

A nursing facility utilization fee is charged per day for each bed used by a resident. The total fee is $15.30 as follows:

- $2.80, deposited in the General Fund;
- $5.50, deposited in the nursing facility utilization fee account and used for maintaining FY2017 prices for Medicaid payments to nursing homes;
- $7, deposited in the nursing facility utilization fee account and used for increasing prices above FY2017 prices for Medicaid payments to nursing homes and for providing wages increases for certified nursing assistants working in nursing facilities.

A facility that serves developmentally disabled and intellectually disabled residents, known as an intermediate care facility, is charged a fee per day for each bed used by a resident. The fee is 6% of the facility’s quarterly revenue divided by the resident bed days for the quarter. The fee is deposited 30% in the general fund and 70% to the Prevention and Stabilization account.
