you at each step of your foster journey
by providing
the TRAINING, RESOURCES and TOOLS needed to care for a child who has suffered abuse
and neglect.

“Learn to do good; seek justice, reprove the ruthless, defend the orphan, plead for the widow.”

FOSTER CARE INFO MEETINGS

Interested in fostering, but don't know where to start?

Attend one of our informational meetings to learn why children come into foster care, how a foster parent can help children heal, and the process for becoming licensed. Don't worry, you're not committing to foster a child. This meeting is about learning more alongside other people who are in the exact same place you are—the very beginning.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- + The crisis & scriptural calling
- + A day in the life from foster families
- + Practical steps for getting started
- + Child Bridge services

RESOURCE GROUPS

Need to understand how to parent through trauma?

We understand the daily challenges that foster families face in caring for children who have experienced trauma. Once a month, join fellow foster families and the Child Bridge team for trauma training, including simple and practical takeaways you can apply in your home to keep your family healthy and help a child heal.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- + Trauma-informed framework
- + Real-life application
- + Immediate takeaways to implement

REFOCUS

Want to connect and dive deeper with other families?

Foster care can be hard, and there will be moments or days when you feel like you're in over your head. That's normal, and it's why community is such an essential part of the process. We build connection into everything we do, leading small groups for facilitated, outcome-driven discussion. We also create space for you to share your experiences to help others, creating deeper relationships and a system of support.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- + Deeper dive into relevant topics
- + People who "get it"
- + Theory tied to real life
