BY REQUEST OF THE ****

A BILL FOR AN ACT ENTITLED: “AN ACT GENERALLY REVISING EMPLOYMENT LAW RELATING TO INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS; PROVIDING FOR DEPARTMENT CONSIDERATIONS WHEN A PERSON MISREPRESENTS INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR STATUS; AMENDING SECTIONS 39-51-201, 39-51-203, AND 39-71-419, MCA.”

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Independent contractor exemption certificate -- misrepresentations.

(1) Pursuant to subsection (2) a person who falsely claimed, either in writing or through credible evidence, to have an independent contractor certification may not be considered to be an employee solely based on not actually having an independent contractor exemption certificate. The burden of proof that an independent contractor is certified rests with the independent contractor and not the hiring entity.

(2) To determine employment status that is not based solely on the lack of an independent contractor exemption certificate, the department shall evaluate a person’s status if:

(a) the person applied to the department for an independent contractor exemption certificate prior to filing the present claim for workers’ compensation or unemployment insurance benefits or prior to the present audit or investigation by the department and the application for the independent contractor exemption certificate is pending determination by the department;

(b) the person provided the hiring agent a forged independent contractor exemption certificate or orally misrepresented that the person was operating under an independent contractor exemption certificate;

(c) the hiring entity took affirmative steps to verify the person’s independent contractor status, verified the person to be an independent contractor, and has documentation;

(d) the independent contractor exemption certificate expires during the working relationship which is at issue in the present claim for workers’ compensation or unemployment insurance benefits or audit or investigation by the department; or

(e) requested by a hiring entity that relied on a person's misrepresentations relating to independent contractor exemption status.

(3) Service not covered under subsection (2) and performed entirely outside the state and on which contributions are neither required nor paid under an unemployment insurance law of any other state or of the federal government is considered to be employment subject to this chapter if the individual performing the services is a resident of this state and the department approves the election of the employing unit for whom the services are performed in order that the entire service of the individual is considered to be employment subject to this chapter.

(4) Service performed by an individual for wages is considered to be employment subject to this chapter until it is shown to the satisfaction of the department that the individual is an independent contractor. another state's law, if:

    certificate that was not issued to that person;

(e) misrepresent the person's status as an independent contractor as provided in [section 1]. A person who falsely claimed, either in writing or through credible evidence, to have an independent contractor certification may not be considered to be an employee solely based on not actually having an independent contractor exemption certificate. The burden of proof that an independent contractor is certified rests with the independent contractor and not the hiring entity.
(2) An employer may not:
(a) require an employee through coercion, misrepresentation, or fraudulent means to adopt independent contractor status to avoid the employer's obligations to provide workers' compensation coverage; or
(b) exert control to a degree that causes the independent contractor to violate the provisions of 39-71-417(4).
(3) In addition to any other penalty or sanction provided in this chapter, a person or employer who violates a provision of this section is subject to a fine to be assessed by the department of up to $1,000 for each violation. The department shall deposit the fines in the uninsured employers' fund. The lien provisions of 39-71-506 apply to any assessed fines.
