BACKGROUND

THE DEPENDENCY AND NEGLECT COURT SYSTEM TASK FORCE

Senate Bill 182 established the Task Force on the Dependency and Neglect Court System to study dependency and neglect court proceedings in Montana. Its responsibility is to determine whether a separate court system dedicated to these issues or the existing court system, with enhancements, would best serve children, families, and other participants involved in dependency and neglect court proceedings.

Committee membership includes legislators, experts, and stakeholders appointed in accordance with SB 182:

- Senator Ellie Boldman
- Senator Dennis Lenz
- Representative Jennifer Carlson
- Representative SJ Howell
- Judge Rienne McElyea – 18th Judicial District Court
- Jessica Finley – Missoula County Deputy Attorney
- Sargent Jon Kadner – Cascade County Sheriff’s Office
- Rachel Green – Health Care Policy Advisor, Governor’s Office
- Wamnee Ereaux – tribal member with experience relating to the Indian Child Welfare Act
- Jennifer Owen – a member of the public experienced with the dependency and neglect court system
- Kelly Driscoll – Family Defense Bureau Chief, Office of State Public Defender
- Nikki Grossberg – Child and Family Services Division Administrator, Department of Public Health and Human Services

The Legislative Services Division provides staff support to the committee:

PLANNING YOUR WORK

WORK PLAN

A tool for the task force, its staff, and the public.

The task force meets throughout the 2023-2024 interim session, concluding its work by September 15, 2024. This work plan provides an outline that helps the task force plan its work and assists Montanans follow that work.

SB 182 prescribes that the task force undertakes one study of dependency and neglect court systems; section 2, subsection (2) of the bill provides a framework for that study. The task force reports its findings and recommendations to the Governor, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and the 69th Montana State Legislature. It may draft legislation.

The Task Force on the Dependency and Neglect Court System has 0.2 FTE (full time equivalent) from its research analyst. It must decide how it would like to spend that FTE. Reports and presentations by state agencies or other entities require staff time to organize and process. Administrative work, like drafting task force communications and reports, also requires staff time. The task force may choose to prioritize certain aspects of the study. (Lines intentionally left blank for task force to identify priorities from the study.)
