Unless otherwise directed in statute, reports to the legislature, including reports to specific interim committees, are biennial reports and need to be submitted in writing by September 1 of the year preceding a legislative session.

Reports that are statutorily required to be submitted to the Education Interim Committee are listed in the table below. The committee can determine whether to receive printed copies of these reports, a presentation of the report in September, or both. Regardless, received reports will be posted to the committee webpage and also be available through the legislative report clearinghouse online.
