

Attorney General's Fiscal Statement- Ballot Initiative No. 8

The Governor's Budget Director submitted a Fiscal Analysis on August 9, 2023. The average cost of a two-day jury trial is $2,130.00. Presumably a two-day grand jury proceeding would have a similar cost. It cannot be determined how many grand juries would be convened should the Initiative pass and become law. It is therefore impossible to accurately determine the fiscal impact. Therefore, the Attorney General's Fiscal Statement is:

The average cost for a two-day jury trial is $2,130. However, it is unknown how many grand juries would be convened under Initiative No. 8 so the fiscal impact is unknown.
