CHAPTER 1

COVID-19 Response

1-45. Members voting on bill in committee. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), for a member to vote on a bill in committee, the legislator must have been either physically present in the committee room or participating remotely during the bill's hearing.

(2) The committee chair may excuse a committee member to participate in bill activities in hearings in other committees.

(3) The committee secretary shall keep a record of a committee member's attendance during each bill hearing and executive action. That record constitutes the official record used to determine eligibility for a member to vote."
