Public Participation in the November 9, 2021, Commission Meeting

The November 9, 2021, meeting of the Montana Districting and Apportionment Commission is open to the public. Members of the public may:

- attend the meeting in person at the Capitol and offer public comment;
- testify remotely via Zoom after registering online using the instructions that follow; and
- provide written comments to the commission.

The meeting will be streamed live at the Montana Legislature's website \(leg.mt.gov\) for those who wish to watch but not comment.

To offer public comment via Zoom during the meeting, please submit a request at the commission's website by 5 p.m. Mountain Standard Time on Monday, November 8. You will receive an email with the login information by midnight the night before the meeting. The commission may be ahead of or behind the time scheduled for public comment on the agenda. The presiding officer may limit the time available for public comment.

Written public comments may be submitted through the webform at the commission's website, by email at districting@mt.gov, entered directly on the interactive maps online, or by mailing the comments to Montana Districting and Apportionment Commission, PO Box 201706, Helena, MT 59620. Comments received by 5 p.m. on Sunday, November 7 will be provided to the commissioners prior to the meeting. Comments received after that time but before November 9 will be given to the commissioners prior to or at the meeting. Comments received on November 9 will be provided to the commissioners prior to their next meeting.

* Public comment provided in person or remotely at a commission meeting is a public record that is recorded, archived, and available on the Internet. Public comment submitted in writing at a commission meeting is a public record that will be posted to the legislative Web site as part of the minutes log for the commission meeting.
