

SAVING MONTANA'S STONEWALL HALL TERRITORIAL CAPITOL VIRGINIA CITY, MONTANA

HELP SAVE MONTANA'S TERRITORIAL CAPITOL

Built in 1864, Stonewall Hall served as the Montana Territorial Capitol from 1865-1875. The building, located on the main street of Virginia City, is a top preservation priority for public-private partners the Montana Heritage Commission and the Montana History Foundation. Without immediate stabilization, the people of Montana risk losing the state's most important territorial-era building.

YOUR GIFT WILL HELP

- 1 Stabilize the structure to begin restoration efforts
- 2 Restore the second-floor chamber room of Montana's first Territorial Legislature
- 3 Create ground-floor commercial space to support ongoing building maintenance

GIVE TODAY TO SAVE MONTANA'S HISTORY FOR TOMORROW

Donate at mthistory.org/giving or send your tax-deductible gift directly to:

The Montana History Foundation
1750 N. Washington St.
Helena, MT 59601
(Please note Stonewall Hall on check memo)

Giving levels

MONTANA HISTORY FOUNDATION
An Independent 501(c)(3)
Non-profit Organization

MONTANA HERITAGE COMMISSION
A division of the Montana
Department of Commerce

For a full decade, Montana politicians carried out the work of the Territorial Legislature at Stonewall Hall, pictured here in 1874 and below today.

Photo courtesy of the Montana Historical Society

JOIN PRESERVATION EFFORTS TO SAVE STONEWALL HALL

Montana's Territorial Capitol is in need of vital restoration including the second-floor chamber room of the Montana Territorial Legislature. Your support will help save this important piece of Montana history.

Learn more and give online at mthistory.org/giving Questions? Please contact:

Charlene Porsild, PhD, President/CEO, Montana History Foundation
charlene@mthistory.org | (406) 449-3770

Elijah Allen, PhD, Executive Director, Montana Heritage Commission
eallen@mt.gov | (406) 369-8147

Stonewall Hall's second-floor chamber room today.

